

EUROPEAN CITIES OF THE REFORMATION

BRIEFING ON HOW TO TAKE PART

Responsibilities of the towns and cities

- Identifying the historical relationship between the city/town and the course of the Reformation during the 16th century
- Encouraging local/regional partners from churches, the local community, cultural bodies and tourism to get on board
- City/town council needs to ratify involvement in the project
- Coordination of activities for 2017
- Planning the events

Link-in with the EKD's "European Reformation Roadmap" project

- "Roadmap" towns and cities qualify for the title "European City of the Reformation" and will be awarded it if they apply

Responsibilities of the CPCE main office

- Managing the application process
- Awarding the title "European City of the Reformation"
- Running the web presence of the European cities of the Reformation at: reformation-cities.org
- International press and public relations
- Ongoing communications with the cities of the Reformation
- Initiating networking and cooperation between the towns and cities